NASA Contractor Employee Arrested

On August 4, 1999, Malcolm W. Levy, New Orleans, LA, a Coast Janitorial Services (CJS), Inc., employee at NASA Michoud Assembly Facility (MAF), New Orleans, was arrested for two counts of forgery (Louisiana State Revised Statute 1472). Mr. Levy was also arrested on three other outstanding warrants for illicit narcotics charges.

On August 3, 1999, Mr. Levy allegedly used a counterfeit $50 currency note to pay for his lunch at a MAF cafeteria, and on August 4, 1999, Mr. Levy allegedly attempted to pass a counterfeit $100 currency note in a MAF gift shop to purchase a greeting card.

Special Agents of the NASA Office of Inspector General conducted this investigation, with assistance from the New Orleans Police Department. The Office of the District Attorney, Orleans Parish, LA, will handle the prosecution.
